

Minister's Mailing

July 2016

Welcome

YOU might notice a slight change in the format of this edition of Minister's Mailing. Not because of any desire to make changes but because the hard drive that holds our previous mailings has broken and the minister has 'lost' a lot of the data he has been keeping. However, this gives a lesson to ensure we back up what we have on our computers and provides an opportunity to add a fresh look to our publications.

One of the changes is the URC logo at the top of the page. For the past six months, the URC's design team has been working to make the denomination's visual identity more positive, striking and adaptable. And the result is the fresh, new logo. More about this can be found by clicking here.

Landsker Link

THE next edition of the Landsker Link will be out at the beginning of August. Churches are reminded to submit their contributions by 20 July. If you have your pulpit rota ready, please could you pass on at your convenience as this takes time to get right.

Church Secretaries must ensure that a copy of the Link is given to all our listed members and friends as this is one way of keeping in touch with those that cannot make it to our services.

Sea Sunday

THE Sea Sunday Service will be held on Canton Green on the shore at Nolton Haven at 4pm on 10th July. Please bring a chair. Pastorate members should note that Nolton Haven will not be holding a morning service on this day.

Cream Tea

A FURTHER reminder that Tiers Cross are holding their cream tea on Saturday 9th July. Tea on the table at 2.30pm.

Pastorate Musical

THANKS to the efforts of Shirley Williams, a small group have come together to be part of the musical that tells the story of the founder of the Sunday School, Robert Raikes. There are still places and roles that need to be filled, especially from younger members, so if you know someone who can help or want to get involved yourself, speak with Shirley.

Church Anniversary

NOLTON HAVEN are holding their anniversary service on 24th July. Details are on the attached 'flyer'. Please note the start time of 2.30pm.
